

“and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more as you see the day drawing near.”

From recent update:

“On the health front, I have started up another series of chemo treatments starting this week after a break of over two months. In December after being referred to another hospital network the doctors there determined it was best to continue with my previous treatment. There has been not much change in the progression of the cancer and from my last procedure this month of replacing the stent to by-pass the blockage from the tumor the pictures show the boundaries of the mass are much more defined now being a good thing. Thank you for your prayers. I truly believe God has extended my life to be a blessing and inspire others.”
