Missions Focus

Riding Light: The equine mentoring ministry of Judy Wiedemeier.

From recent update:

“With the exceptionally nice weather we've been experiencing, we've had many visitors! Some are students who come out to ride and help with chores and other projects, some are people who are interested in possibly volunteering with us this next season, and some are simply visitors who want to learn more about our program. We love having folks out, so while it can be busy, it's also a huge blessing.”

Please pray for the winter bible study groups!
